

Understanding and Responding to Bullying Concerns

Friday, April 27, 2018

10:30 am - 12:00 noon

Ronald McDonald House 1901 Rockland Road, Wilmington, DE

Family SHADE invites you to join us for a free workshop focusing on:

- Understanding the regulations and the student, parent and school rights and responsibilities around bullying in Delaware
- Reviewing bullying data from Delaware
- Learning strategies to respond to bullying, including bullying concerns related to at risk populations
- Identifying and sharing resources to support students impacted by or engaging in bullying behavior

Presented by:

Deborah Boyer, MS, is the director of the School-Age Services Unit at the University of Delaware's Center for Disabilities Studies (CDS) and the co-director of the Delaware Positive Behavior Support Project, a collaboration between CDS and the Delaware Department of Education.

Meedra Surratte is the special programs manager of the Parent Information Center of Delaware. She works with parents, caregivers, educators and professionals to help them develop best practices when teaching and parenting children with disabilities and challenging needs.

Please RSVP by April 25th to:
