

FAMILIES KNOW BEST

COVID-19 Survey Results

March vs. June 2020

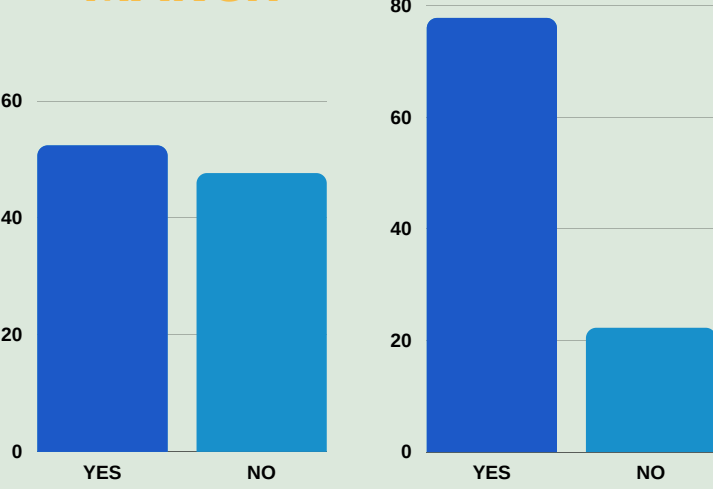

In the midst of a global pandemic, Family SHADE reached out to our voluntary parent advisory group to see what their needs and concerns are during the beginning stages of the pandemic and as Delaware phases out of the stay at home orders. Here are the results!

SUPPLIES

Do you have enough supplies for your child's needs while staying at home?

MARCH

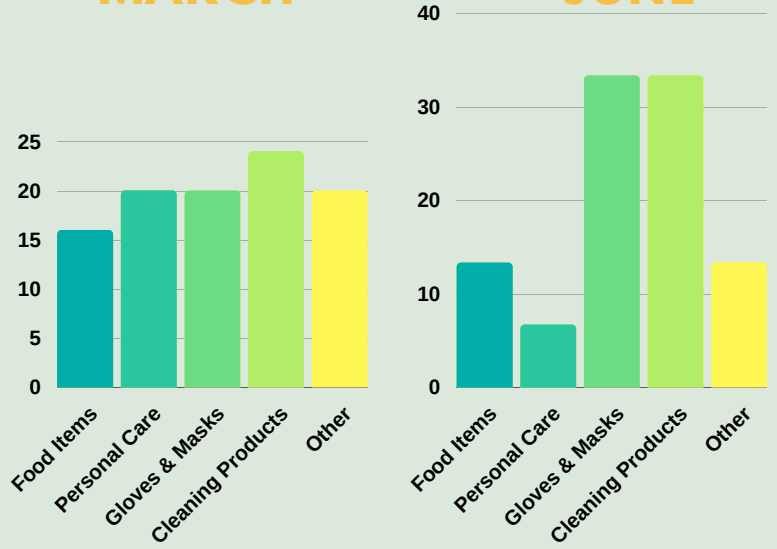

JUNE

Which of the following supplies are you in need of?

MARCH

JUNE

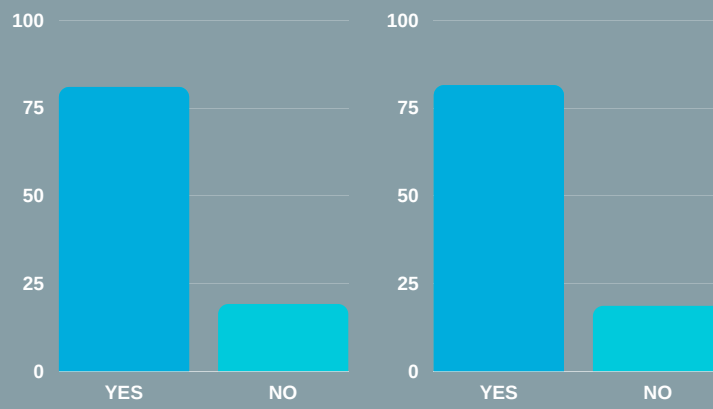

EMOTIONS

Has your child been happy at home during the pandemic?

MARCH

JUNE

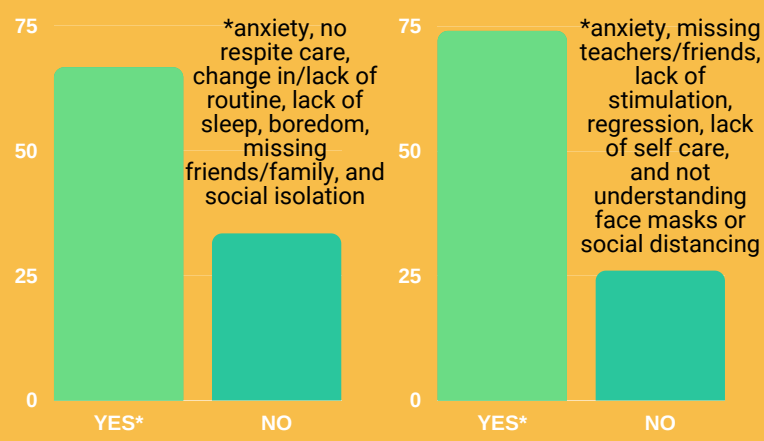

STRESSORS

Have you noticed any stressors for you and/or your child with special healthcare needs?

MARCH

JUNE

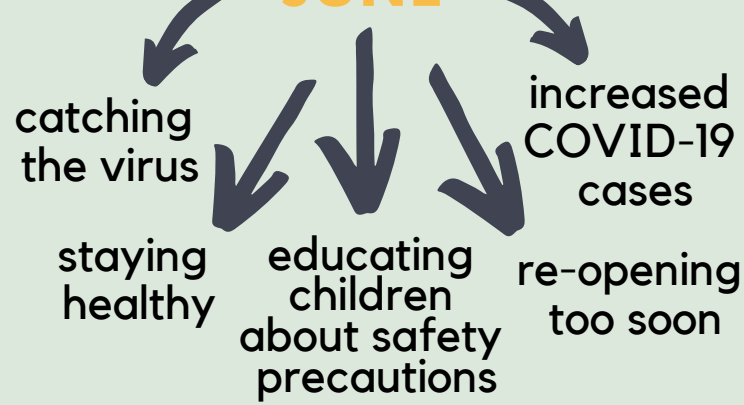

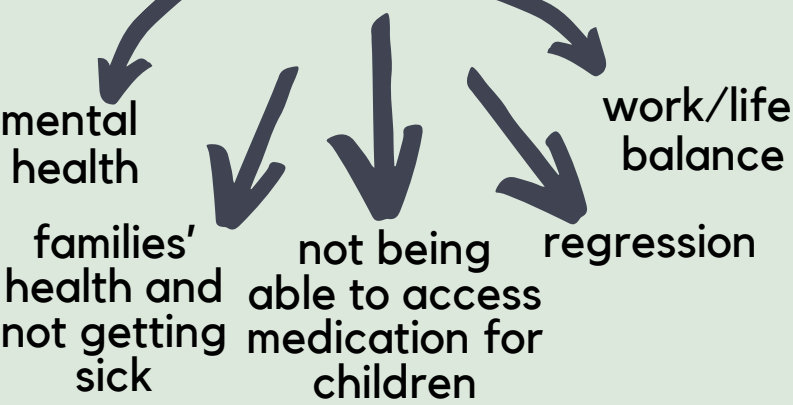

CONCERNS

What is of most concern to you during this pandemic?

MARCH

What concerns you the most as Delaware phases out from stay at home orders and begins to re-open?

JUNE

SERVICES & SUPPORTS

What services/supports might help relieve some of the stress you and/or your child are feeling?

Have you accessed any services/supports to relieve some of the stressors?

MARCH

JUNE

